

“Innovation in the Public Sector” (No longer a novelty...today a necessity!) A NCPSI Briefing

Learning Overview

If you were looking for an “Introduction to Public Sector Program/Service Innovation 101, 201, 301, 401, and 501” combination course, the Innovation in the Public Sector NCPSI Briefing is all that and more. The key to the content and delivery of this workshop is that it is based on pure experience-based learning.

Hour-by-hour the Innovation in the Public Sector NCPSI Briefing walks you through the process of building an innovative experience. The goal of the Briefing is to answer all of the who, what, where, when, how and why innovation questions. It is also intended to help everyone understand that innovation in the public sector is “No longer a novelty...today a necessity”.

Innovation is possible in all public/private non-profit sector programs or services. Innovation is also alive inside of everyone. Innovations are never too small nor too simple to be important to someone else somewhere. Become part of NCPSI product development....attend and take part in the Innovation in the Public Sector NCPSI Briefing.
